

Final Report of the Ad Hoc Committee

“Pan American Woman”

by Beatriz de la Garza

In addition to being an engaging and well-researched book about Florence Terry Griswold, I hope each of you will consider the book as an appropriate and effective tool to promote PART of Texas. It documents our roots and our mission which are a source of pride for all of us.

The Austin Table has put together a Committee that works on ways to promote the book. We have come up with several ideas we would like to share with you.

- Giving the book to speakers and special guests at meetings and events
- Sharing the book with other women’s organizations
- Placing the books in selected university libraries
- Looking in making the book available on Amazon and placing a copy in the Women’s History Museum in Washington, D.C.
- We have books to give to each Table to use in promoting PARTT. There are also order forms available

As of November, 2018, Florence Terry Griswold is included in the Handbook of Texas Women – on online book by the Texas State Historical Association. The link is as follows:

Thank you for the opportunity to produce the DVD and the book.
